1. INTRODUCTION

In terms of the Municipal Systems Act, 2000 Chapter 5: Section 25. Adoption of integrated development plans

(1) Each municipal council must, within a prescribed period after the start of its election term, adopt a single, inclusive and strategic plan for the development of the municipality which-

- (a) Links , integrates and co-ordinates plan and takes into account proposal for the development of the municipality;
- (b) Aligns the resources and capacity of the municipality with implementation of the plan;
- (c) Form the policy framework and general basis on which annual budgets must be based;
- (d) Complies with the provision of this chapter; and
- (e) Is compatible with national and provincial development plans and planning requirement binding on the municipality in terms of legislation.

(2) An integrated development plan adopted by a municipal council in terms of subsection (1) may be amended in terms of section 34 and remains in force until an integrated development plan is adopted by the next council.

(3) (a) A newly elected municipal council may, within the prescribed period referred to in subsection (1), adopt the integrated development plan of its predecessor, but before taking a decision it must comply with section 29 (1) (b) (i), (c) and (d).

(b) A newly elected municipal council that adopts the integrated development plan of its predecessor with amendments, must effect the amendments in accordance with the process referred to in section 34 (b)

(4) A municipality must, within 14 days of the adoption of its integrated development plan in terms of subsection (1) or (3)-

- (a) Give notice to the public-
 - (i) Of the adoption of the plan; and
 - (ii) That copies of or extract from the plan are available for public inspection at specified places; and
- (b) Publicise a summary of the plan.

Section 29. Process to be followed –

(1) The process followed by a municipality to draft integrated development plan, including its consideration and adoption of the draft plan, must –

- (a) Be in accordance with a predetermined programme specifying time –frame for the different steps;
- (b) Through appropriate mechanisms, process and procedures established in terms of chapter 4, allow for-
 - (i) The local community to be consulted on its development need and priorities;
 - (ii) The local community to participate in the drafting of the integrated development plan; and
 - (iii) Organs of state, including traditional authorities , and other roll players to be identified and consulted on the draft of the integrated development plan;
- (c) Provide for the identification of all plans and planning requirements binding on the municipality in terms of national and provincial legislation; and
- (d) Be consistent with any other matter that may be prescribed by regulation.

(2) A district municipality must-

- (a) Plan integrated development for the area of the district municipality as a whole but in close consultation with the local municipality in that area;
- (b) Align its integrated development plan with the framework adopted in terms of section 27; and

- (c) Draft its integrated development plan ,taking into account the integrated development process of, and proposals submitted to it by the local municipalities in that area.

(3) A local municipality must

(a) Align its integrated development plan with the framework adopted in terms of section 27; and

(b) Draft its integrated development plan, taking into account the integrated development process of, and proposal submitted to it by the district municipality.

The IDP has to be reviewed annually in order to ensure its relevance as the Municipality's Strategic Plan, to inform other components of the Municipal business process including institutional and financial planning and budgeting and to inform the cyclical inter-governmental planning and budgeting cycle. As a preparatory stage a local Municipality is required to prepare a process plan. In formulation of local Municipality needs to consider that in terms of the MSA of 2000, section 84 one of its functions includes integrated development planning for the local municipality as a whole including a framework for integrated development plans . In the review process changes to the IDP process and content may be required from three main sources:

- Comments from the MEC
- Amendments in response to changing circumstances and
- Improving the IDP process and content

While there are areas that require "tightening up" in Umzimvubu Municipal IDP, there are a number of areas where particular attention is required:

- Institutional issues
- Sector plan and associated spatial frame work
- IDP budget link and
- Updated list of projects
- Issues relating to Environmental Changes and Challenges

In accordance with a philosophy behind the Municipal Structures Act, 1998, section 84 (i) that states A local Municipality has the following functions and powers:-

(a) Integrated Development Planning for its area of jurisdiction.

The Municipal Finance Management Act 56 of 2003 section 21 (1)(a) provides that the Mayor of the Municipality must:

- (a) Co-ordinate the processes for preparing the annual budget and for reviewing the Municipality's Integrated Development Plan and budget related policies to ensure that the tabled budget and any revisions of the Integrated Development Plan and budget related policies are mutually consistent and credible.
- (b) At least ten months before the start of the budget year, table in the municipal Council a time schedule outlining key deadlines for :-
 - (ii) (aa) the annual review of the Integrated Development Plan in terms of section 34 of the Municipal Systems Act 32 of 2000.

The Municipal Systems Act 32 of 2000 section 34 provides that a Municipal Council:-

- (a) Must review its Integrated Development Plan

- (i) Annually in accordance with an assessment of its performance measurements in terms of section 41 and
- (ii) To the extent that changing circumstances so demand; and
- (iii) May amend integrated development plan in accordance with a prescribed process.

Section 27 (1) of the Municipal Systems Act, further states that, each district municipality, within a prescribed period after the start of its elected term and after a consultative process with local municipalities within its area, must adopt a framework for integrated development planning in the area as a whole”.

Objectives

- To draw up a review process plan that would engender inclusivity and transparency;
- To encourage participation by all stakeholders and communities;
- To solicit and determine priorities of the Municipality; and
- To enhance service delivery and development.

2.5 Mechanism and Procedures For Public Participation

Umzimvubu Local Municipality comprises a large geographical area with many people. This situation requires that public participation be structured.

The structure for public participation in as far as the IDP process is concerned is the IDP Representative Forum. In order to ensure that there is representation of the various organized and unorganized groups within our municipal area. The following approach shall be used:

- Placing adverts in our local newspaper(s), Daily Dispatch, in English and isiXhosa which people and organizations to be part of the Representative Forum
- In order to reach those parts of our community that do not read newspapers, the information of the Representative Forum will be announced through radio stations such as Alfred Nzo Community Radio Station and Umhlobo Wenene
- Making use of other methods such as flyers, ward councilors, ward committees and community development workers, announcements through church gatherings and community-based organizations, posters etc.
- Making an effort to reach unorganized groups and marginalized groups to ensure that their voices are heard. We will do this by approaching non-governmental organizations that represent the need of such groups.
- Our Local Communicators Forum will be utilized as another platform to mobilize these meetings.

The IDP Representative Forum will meet throughout the IDP process with most meetings being held in the first, second and third phases of the review. The frequency of meetings will be highlighted in the “Action Programme” section.

It is envisaged that all meetings will be held at Umzimvubu Local Municipality, or alternatively, determined as and when need arises.

In order for members of the IDP Representative Forum to report to their constituencies, three weeks after each meeting will be allowed to make responses and comment on what is presented at the meeting, that is, should what is discussed at the meeting require feedback.

Inputs to the IDP Representative Forum will be in the form of documentation, presentations and other forms deemed acceptable.
